Stephanie E. Kellogg Borynack, Joins Wally Findlay Galleries International

It gives me great personal pleasure to announce that Stephanie E.K. Borynack has agreed to join the gallery as our Vice President, International Director beginning in May, 2008.

Stephanie brings to our company an abundance of managerial and organizational skills that will provide us with the leadership to grow and accomplish even greater goals as we continue to venture in new directions.

Her tenure at Lehman Brothers established accountability within her team performance resulting in national accomplishments. This year she received the distinguished recognition of Senior Vice President at Lehman Brothers and received accolades for establishing the company's first office of University Relations now functioning with a more efficient staff aligning Lehman Brothers with the best and the brightest at American Universities.

Stephanie English Kellogg Borynack is the daughter of James R. Borynack, Chairman & CEO of Wally Findlay Galleries International, Inc. and lives in New York City.

Stephanie will be based at our New York gallery as the Managing Director of that gallery with full responsibility of its day-to-day operations. Stephanie will also venture into establishing new artistic relations for the gallery and direct our Wealth Advisory for our global higher net worth clientele.

Please join me in welcoming Stephanie into our family of Findlay colleagues and artists. In particular, I am as proud as one could ever be.

James R. Borynack, Chairman and CEO
